

Titel: I'm counting on you Musik: André R. Kohl
Songtext: André R. Kohl

You changed my life completely,
the way you kiss my lips so sweetly is making up my mind and I'm counting on you.

A dream of you drives me insane,
my heart is beating like the rhythm of a train that's leaving home
and I'm counting on you.

Shure I know, that this won't last forever, but I wish that it will last as long as we can bear, but if we try our love will be the greatest love, a love that can break up the chain in you and me.

Refrain: Believe me, I'm counting on you,
counting on you,
in every time I get weak.
Believe me, I'm counting on you,
just for the way
you gonna touch my cheek.
You set a new horizon in the sky,
I try to reach it just without a question why,
but I need your company.
Yes, I'm counting on you,
counting on you,
counting on you, because this love is true.

You burned my soul,
eternal flame,
it is like every ray of sunshine is crying out your name,
and I'm counting on you.

You've touched my heart and that is why I gave my wishes and my hopes a try, just without thinking of,
‚cause I'm counting on you.

You're in my mind like such a lightning, and you are deep under my skin just like a thunderstrom, but when you're near to catch my fall, there's no one who can bring a wedge into the greatest love of all.

Refrain:

Believe me, I'm counting on you,
counting on you,
in every time I get weak.
Believe me, I'm counting on you,
just for the way
you gonna touch my cheek.
You set a new horizon in the sky,
I try to reach it just without a question why,
but I need your company.
Yes, I'm counting on you,
counting on you,
counting on you, because this love is true.
